PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Schonfeld Strategic Advisors

New York, NY

Senior Software Engineer, AI Technology

Jan 2026 – Present

- Developed and scaled an enterprise multi-modal AI platform from 200–300 to 600–800 monthly active users (~60–80% of the firm's 1,000 employees), supporting multiple LLM providers across Slack and web
- Built agentic tools and MCP server integrations powering 100+ integrations across 20 internal data sources, enabling agents to autonomously access firm data and services (collaborated cross-team; led select integrations end-to-end)
- Designed a shareable resources framework using a registry/dispatch-table pattern, enabling resource types (prompts, projects, skills, etc.) to plug into access control and group-based sharing
- Built firm-wide prompt library (1,200+ prompts) with CRUD endpoints, safe-access guardrails for LLM consumption, and a self-service management UI
- Designed a scheduled prompts system extending the library, generating 28,000+ automated invocations monthly via EventBridge

Software Engineer, AI Technology

Sep 2024 – Dec 2025

- Designed an S3-backed file storage system with DynamoDB metadata lookup, and a parsing layer that converts different types of files into structured block representations consumable by LLMs
- Designed and implemented an event-driven task workflow with DynamoDB backed job queuing with configurable retry policies
- Managed cloud infrastructure and observability to ensure reliability and improved developer velocity through CI/CD enhancements

Data Engineer, Cloud Data Platform

Jul 2021 – Aug 2024

- Engineered ETL pipelines processing 20 years of historical daily data for the Cloud Data Platform, ensuring data accessibility and integrity for analytics
- Developed Shovel, an AWS-powered data processing tool, automating data compression and organization within S3
- Collaborated with data vendors to onboard finance datasets and configured ETL tools to handle evolving schemas

Software Engineer Intern, Data Platform

Jun 2020 – Aug 2020

- Worked on the data platform to provide fast and reliable data access to Portfolio Managers
- Applied data analysis techniques to improve data quality using KDB+/Q and Jupyter Notebooks, implementing comprehensive data validation for the IBES financial dataset

Black Snow Capital

New York, NY

Investment Associate & Data Science Intern

May 2019 – Aug 2019

- Highly involved in researching and building a financial model to rank banks in China based on their financial conditions
- Drafted daily market reports and learned about economic conditions' effect on financial products through weekly discussions
- Analyzed data on Haver, Bloomberg and other providers to build trade signals for various financial products
- Used Python in Jupyter Notebook to scrape, manage and manipulate data, and used Bokeh to produce graphs and visualize data
